Some remarkable fulfillments of Bible prophecy are happening before our eyes! What Ellen White predicted over 150 years ago in the Great Controversy IS happening! Shame on 'Adventists' like Jan Paulien at Loma Linda who would dare to make light of this masterpiece or others who speak ill of her prophetic pen!! In a few short months, President Trump has implemented nearly 50% of the Heritage Foundation's Project 2025 and there appears to be nothing stopping him from implementing it all! Shame on Doug Bachelor for telling the world that Project 2025 and the Heritage Foundation is a 'Nothing Burger'!! A nothing burger is a term used to describe something that is hyped up or given significant attention, but turns out to be of little to no real importance or significance. It's essentially a situation where the appearance or initial hype doesn't match the substance.

One of the elements of this Project is getting everyone back to church. Notice under the chapter on Labor, Jonathan Berry declared, "God ordained the Sabbath as a day of rest, and until very recently the Judeo-Christian tradition sought to honor that mandate by moral and legal regulation of work on that day" and blames consumerism and secularism for the decline in Sabbath observance. But he's not content to reminisce about the good ol' days when Americans went to church. He wants the federal government to push people back to church, and calls on Congress to "encourage communal rest by amending the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) to require that workers be paid time and a half for hours worked on the Sabbath." Berry argues this would lead to higher costs that would reduce work on the Sabbath." Friend, whenever Berry mentions Sabbath, he means Sunday!! And, according to Doug Bachelor this is of NO real importance or significance??? This is the unfolding of end time events and the fulfillment of Bible prophecy and Doug says that??? Is he high on something?? Smoking again?? Unbelievable!!! Where are the voices in Adventism today? Prophecy is being fulfilled, the end is near, America teeters on the brink of collapse and ruin, Adventist 'watchmen' are sound asleep, and this is, to Doug Bachelor, a NOTHING BURGER????

Listen to the voice from the past that spoke of the present, "Thou art the man." 2 Samuel 12:7. Words as unmistakably plain as these spoken by Nathan to David are seldom heard in the pulpits of today, seldom seen in the public press. If they were not so rare, we should see more of the power of God revealed among men. The Lord's messengers should not complain that their efforts are without fruit until they repent of their own love of approbation and their desire to please men, which leads them to suppress truth. Those ministers who are men pleasers, who cry, Peace, peace, when God has not spoken peace, might well humble their hearts before God, asking pardon for their insincerity and their lack of moral courage. It is not from love for their neighbor that they smooth down the message entrusted to them, but because they are self-indulgent and ease-loving. True love seeks first the honor of God and the salvation of souls. Those who have this love will not evade the truth to save themselves from the unpleasant results of plain speaking. When souls are in peril, God's ministers will not consider self, but will speak the word given them to speak, refusing to excuse or palliate evil. Would that every minister might realize the sacredness of his office and the holiness of his work, and show the courage that Elijah showed! As divinely appointed messengers, ministers are in a position of awful responsibility. They are to “reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering.” 2 Timothy 4:2. In Christ's stead they are to labor as stewards of the mysteries of heaven, encouraging the obedient and warning the disobedient. With them worldly policy is to have no weight. Never are they to swerve from the path in which Jesus has bidden them walk. They are to go forward in faith, remembering that they are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses. They are not to speak their own words, but words which One greater than the potentates of earth has bidden them speak. Their message is to be, “Thus saith the Lord.” God calls for men like Elijah, Nathan, and John the Baptist—men who will bear His message with faithfulness, regardless of the consequences; men who will speak the truth bravely, though it calls for the sacrifice of all they have.” PK, pgs. 141,142

And what about the Adventist statemen, Dr. Ben Carson, the renowned neurosurgeon. Carson has been appointed to be vice chair of a religious commission on religious liberty. You say, how wonderful to have an Adventist in such a position!! Sorry to burst your bubble, friend but Ben Carson doesn't even believe the Constitution protects the separation of church and state! “Carson was speaking at the Academy's National Character and Leadership Symposium and during a question period told the crowd, “And those people that like to criticize America – criticize people in America – and always talking about separation of church and state, which is not in the Constitution, by the way –...” April 3, 2022 The separation of the church and state, while not specifically mentioned with those exact words, it is certainly and clearly implied in the 1st Amendment. Listen to the first amendment, “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” The first amendment guarantees that Congress, or any other part of government, stays out of the church and the church stays out of politics. In other words, the church and the state are to remain separate. Every schoolboy knows this and renowned neurosurgeon Ben Carson would say such nonsense!!

Why would this amendment be placed in the Constitution? The Founding Fathers knew the history of St. Bartholomew's in 1572; they knew the sordid history of the Catholic Inquisition; they knew the bloody history of the Waldenses, and they determined to write in stone a protective clause that would make it impossible for anyone to ever be persecuted on American soil for the religious beliefs! This protection and separation of church and state has been one of the grand cornerstones that has made America great! Take it away and America will be no more!! Great job, Ben!! You should have stuck with medicine!!

Oh friend, the President is playing with dynamite! The President is implementing Project 2025 are an astounding speed. Part of this Project is Sunday worship and Adventist rock star Doug Bachelor is telling us to go back to sleep, “It is a nothing Burger.” With watchmen like that, who needs enemies??!?!? We have an Adventist in the President's inner circle telling the President that God is leading him and the President is tampering with the Constitution and religious freedom! Keep your armor on, friend, the Lord is near, even at the door!!

From Kenya “These other just concluded graduation ceremony for Sunday-keeping pastors marked a historic milestone in the journey of biblical truth and gospel advancement in these parts of the world. PB, after undergoing a series of intensive Bible studies, these pastors now stand equipped with a wealth of knowledge and enhanced research skills, ready to go out and refine their congregations with the unadulterated word of God. This initiative is a powerful strategy in fulfilling the great commission, particularly in these end times. As Jesus commanded, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19-20). By bringing shepherds under the influence of the Holy Spirit and guiding them to diligently search the Scriptures, we have witnessed a remarkable transformation. Many of them, who initially held strong prejudiced views, were humbled as they encountered deep biblical truths. Ellen G. White affirms, "When the testing time shall come, those who have made God's word their rule of life will be revealed" (The Great Controversy, p. 593). This method proves to be an effective way to reach more souls, as pastors—once enlightened—become instrumental in leading their congregations away from error and into the marvelous light of truth. The testimonies shared during the ceremony were truly inspiring. Many pastors admitted that they had approached these studies with confidence in their prior knowledge, only to be astounded by the great truths they discovered. Key doctrinal areas such as the Ten Commandments ("If ye love me, keep my commandments"—John 14:15), the Second Coming of Jesus versus the secret rapture ("Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him"—Revelation 1:7), the judgment, sin, and the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation opened their eyes to the reality of God's end-time message. Ellen G. White writes, "The prophecies present a succession of events leading down to the opening of the judgment" (The Great Controversy, p. 594). As a result, their congregations are eager to join the next training session, showing an overwhelming interest in learning more about these biblical teachings. A significant highlight of the event was the distribution of books, which the pastors received with great enthusiasm. These books will serve as vital tools in spreading the message far and wide. "Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days" (Ecclesiastes 11:1). Despite an unexpected early downpour that briefly interrupted the proceedings, the atmosphere remained charged with joy and appreciation. The photos taken during the ceremony captured the excitement and gratitude as the pastors embraced these newfound truths. This work requires continued support, particularly in funding such seminars, as they have proven to be a crucial means of accelerating the spread of the gospel. "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest" (Luke 10:2). With adequate resources, we can reach even greater heights and witness an even larger harvest of souls coming to Christ. As we press forward, let us remain committed to this divine mission, trusting that God will provide the means to sustain and expand this work. To all you and your team at TT who support the work here in Kenya, may the Lord richly bless. My prayer is the Lord send you a donor to support the training seminars. "We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history." (Life Sketches, p. 196).

From Uganda “Receive our greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ our savior. We thank you very much for your assistance in your kind prayers: literature and money which has done us much good. It has improved our status both physically and spiritually. We had a successful meeting in which we baptized 29 souls out of which 4 were from Islamic religion South Sudan. Total attendance were 197 members in which we elected 5 workers to stand as pastors one from each country to send the three Angeles messages and bring awareness to the needy.”

From Edward “Keith Kamawu is a cancer patient in Zambia. He is also a Pentecostal Pastor. He has been living with prostate cancer for a year. His prayers did not heal him. But some good news found him when he received the health DVDs. He praised God for having those DVDs which for the first time in his life heard the 8 wonderful lessons you have made and by Gods grave, the DVD are doing a wonderful work. This Pastor Keith Kamawu became a vegetarian. This decision has today brought a miracle in his life by having his cancer to heal steadily. He told his church the importance of keeping the Sabbath when after he got more sermons. Keith went to the hospital and was told that his prostate cancer was healing well. He continued to pray and to take your teachings seriously and by fasting. He told me to tell the American that he is praising the Lord to give the light of truth that came into his life at a time he had no hope. He is praising the Lord for your other sermons that has helped him to reform on the Sabbath from Sunday. Many Sunday keepers are so quick to learn and to hold fast what they have discovered more than SDAs. It was important that I share with you about this man whom God has delivered from cancer to Sabbath truth. Changes Have been gradual. May your works and sermons continue to break through the hearts of Africa at such a time like this. God bless you PB.”

From China “Thanks God for your sermons this week! May the blessings continue flow to you and your ministry. I’m from China. A new seventh day Adventist. I got baptized in my local church. But then I found out the SDA churches are not living out the whole truth like those pioneers of SDA. Very sad to see this. Then I don’t go to that church anymore. But I keep Sabbath day. I’m listening to your channel.”
