

He was right way too many times for anyone not to take what He said seriously. Every single prediction He made came to pass. It would be very serious not to heed advice He may have for those living toward the end of the world. The Man referred to is Jesus and this is His warning.

Jesus was at the end of His life and the professed people of God were plotting His life. He told them that their persistent rebellion would bring upon them destruction. Jesus said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Matthew 23:37-39 In these tragic words, Jesus told the Jews that their temple would be destroyed. This was a most stunning thing to predict, but He had been right too many times before to not take Him very, very, seriously.

Herod's temple was a wonder of the ancient world. White marble in appearance, it had the look of being impregnable. However, Jesus said it was coming down and down it came in 70AD before the onslaught of Titus and the Romans. Among those who were most stunned by what Jesus said were His disciples. Shortly after this, Jesus reiterated what He had already said, saying, "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying; tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Matthew 24:2, 3

The disciples were convinced that when the temple was destroyed Jesus would come the second time to this earth. They put the two events together. However, the two events didn't happen at the same time. The temple was destroyed in 70 AD and Jesus has yet to come the second time. When answering the disciples two fold question, Jesus only gave one answer. That means that what He said applies not only to the events to take place around the destruction of the temple, but the same events would occur just before His Second Coming! That means that what Jesus said has a double application. What Jesus said had meaning for the people living around 70 AD and His words have meaning for us today!

What did Jesus tell us? Here we go, "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places." Matthew 24:4-7 Twice in those verses, Jesus told us to watch out for deception. In Matthew 24:11, we read, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." Finally, in Verse 24, Jesus said, "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

Whenever Jesus wanted to stress something, He would say, "Verily, verily, I say unto you." He would repeat verily twice for emphasis. In Matthew 24, for those living at the end of earth's history, Jesus repeated a word four times, and said, "You better watch out. DECEPTION will be so thick you could cut it with a knife. Watch out what you are told! Beware!"

Now, before going any further, let us be very clear on what deception is. Webster's dictionary tells us, deception is "deceitfulness, duplicity, double-dealing, fraud, trickery". Let me illustrate this for you from an experience I had when I was in the eighth grade. My junior high school had a flag football team. On our championship team, we had one play that always scored a touchdown. The reason it was so successful was because we used deception. Let me explain briefly. The flanker would spread out wide to the right of the formation. As the quarterback, me, called the signals, he would come in motion back toward me. By the time I said three, he was close in proximity to me. I would turn, lateral the ball to him, and then my two backs, Brian and Bill, would block around the left end. We ran this play twice on first and second down.

On third down, we did the identical thing. As I started calling the signals, the flanker, Kevin, would start toward me. The other team KNEW exactly what we were going to do. They started moving toward the side of the field where they KNEW Kevin would be shortly. In fact, they started smiling at me as they moved over to the side, waiting for what would SURELY occur. Well, I pitched the ball to Kevin and we started around the end as always, EXCEPT for one thing. My speedy halfback, Brian, didn't go to block. He reversed his field, took the ball from Kevin's outer hip, and made his way down the opposite sideline where nobody was. The other team pulled Kevin's flags and was so happy with themselves, figuring they got us. All the time, Brian was running down the opposite sideline for a touchdown.

It worked to perfection. We had deceived the other team into believing that Kevin would carry it again around the corner, and while they were so happy, the real play was happening in a totally different area. The other side of the field was where things were happening and the other team didn't know that! They were deceived, faked out, and tricked! And, Jesus said this would be happening down toward the end of earth's history! He told us to watch out. While everything is being focused and centered on something, the REAL events are happening in another area of the world. Could that be happening to us today? Is the coronavirus, in which many people are tragically dying, being used today by certain powerful groups in our world to bring about their agenda? While everyone focuses on this virus, are other things happening in our world that could lead to terrible results for everyone on this planet?

Jesus told us, "Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." Matthew 24:4, 5 He has been right too many times to not take what He says very, very, seriously. Now, let's weigh something for a moment.

Where do we receive most of our information today? What mechanisms are used to communicate to people in the timeliest manner and to reach the most people at once? Clearly, the media is what is used very effectively to communicate to the populace. We get the great bulk of our messages of communication from the television, the radio, newspapers, magazines, and the internet. Is it possible that the media we are listening to is controlled by powerful people behind the scenes? Is it possible that these power groups are dictating what people are told in order to help the masses embrace an agenda? You know, I grew up on Walter Cronkite and David Brinkley and thought they were the finest of men. I'm sure many of us feel the same about David Muir, Katie Couric, George Stephanopoulos and Diane Sawyer today.

With Jesus' warning ringing in our ears and the undeniable fact that media is the way we receive messages today, a statement by John Swinton hits us square between the eyes. Swinton was a preeminent journalist over a century ago. Swinton declared at a press club dinner in his honor, "There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinions to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it, and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes." (Source: Labor's Untold Story, by Richard O. Boyer and Herbert M. Morais, published by United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, NY, 1955/1979.)

The quote raises the issue of whether there is not continuing truth in Swinton's remarks, and whether some candid journalist might not be able to fairly say similar things today. Anyone who has associated closely with journalists can hardly avoid finding a ring of truth in such words, and the best evidence lies in the actual product of journalists and how well, or how poorly, it both agrees with and covers what actually happens, especially involving such things as corruption and abuse of power. Swinton declared that journalists are the tools of rich men behind the scenes. The journalists are puppets in the hands of the wealthy that control them. In order to save their job, the journalist or anchor will readily lie, deceive (there is that word), say whatever they are told in order to guide people down the path of their handlers-the wealthy of the world! Just one example of this would be the control of media by one Rupert Murdoch. His holdings over the media of this world are staggering.

So, does the world's wealthy have an agenda for the populace of this world? Are they using their wealth and power to communicate to this planet what they want them to know about this virus in order to carry out their agenda for this world? Are their powers above the wealthy people of the world who also have global agendas and the coronavirus is part of finalizing their plans? Does this sound like a conspiracy to you? People shy away from conspiracy today, poo pooing it as conspiracy theorists. Probably just some cuckoo heads. We will look at this in our next chapter.

Jesus warned us about deception. I hope we are listening.

Coronavirus Conspiracy, chapter 2

At the United Nations on November 10, 2001, United States President George W. Bush denounced the emergence of "outrageous conspiracy theories ... that attempt to shift the blame away from the terrorists, themselves, away from the guilty." Later, as media exposure of conspiracy theories of the events of 9/11 increased, U.S. Government agencies and the Bush Administration issued responses to the theories, including a formal analysis by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) about the collapse of the World Trade Center, a revised 2006 State Department webpage to debunk the theories, and a strategy paper referred to by President Bush in an August 2006 speech, which declared that terrorism springs from "subcultures of conspiracy and misinformation," and that "terrorists recruit more effectively from populations whose information about the world is contaminated by falsehoods and corrupted by conspiracy theories." Clearly, former President Bush is not happy with conspiracy theories. Since he isn't, this has set a precedent among people that the idea of conspiracy is purely a theory and that there is no basis to it. Well.....

George W. Bush attended Yale University and was a member of a Secret Society while there. The name of the Society was the Order of Skull and Bones. In order for Bush to become a member, he had to go through an initiation rite. In this rite, Bush vowed absolute obedience to three representatives. In the book, Codeword Barbelon by P. D. Stuart, it states that Bush bowed to the head of Freemasonry, the Pope, and the Jesuit General. Pages 339-341 declare this truth. Bush sold his soul to these entities and would do ANYTHING they told him to do. Any vows of loyalty to his country would mean NOTHING to a member of Skull and Bones. George Bush followed the leading of these powers while in the White House. Why would Bush speak out so forcefully against the idea of conspiracy was because he was part of a massive conspiracy?!

So, what of conspiracy? Is there really a conspiracy? Is it a theory or is it a fact? Is anyone who believes in a conspiracy a nut or is he right on the money? According to Webster's dictionary, a conspiracy is “An agreement to perform together an illegal, wrongful, or subversive act.

2. A group of conspirators.

3. Law An agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.

4. A joining or acting together, as if by sinister design: a secret plan to carry out an illegal or harmful act

2. The act of making such plans

Conspiracy - a secret agreement between two or more people to perform an unlawful act.

So, a conspiracy is two or more people or groups united together with a sinister purpose. Well, you say, there are so many voices out there. How do I know which one to trust that will be giving an unbiased view? Those are fair comments. The only unbiased, clear book that will give us the answer is the Bible. Revelation 17 and 18 answer this question of conspiracy very clearly if we are open to hear what it says. We are immediately confronted in these chapters with a monolithic power called Babylon the Great. “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” Revelation 17:5 interestingly enough, the Protestant Reformers agreed on very little, BUT they all agreed on who Babylon the Great was. Listen to them speak.

Luther: "nothing else than the kingdom of Babylon and of very Antichrist. For who is the man of sin and the son of perdition, but he who by his teaching and his ordinances increases the sin and perdition of souls in the church; while he yet sits in the church as if he were God? All these conditions have now for many ages been fulfilled by the papal tyranny." (Martin Luther, First Principles, pp. 196-197)

Luther: “Luther ... proved, by the revelations of Daniel and St. John, by the epistles of St. Paul, St. Peter, and St. Jude, that the reign of Antichrist, predicted and described in the Bible, was the Papacy ... And all the people did say, Amen! A holy terror seized their souls. It was Antichrist whom they beheld seated on the pontifical throne. This new idea, which derived greater strength from the prophetic descriptions launched forth by Luther into the midst of his contemporaries, inflicted the most terrible blow on Rome.” Taken from J. H. Merle Daubigny’s History of the Reformation of the Sixteen Century, book VI, chapter xii, p. 215.

Calvin: “But to conclude this point in a few words: I deny that See to be Apostolical, wherein naught is seen but a shocking apostasy — I deny him to be the vicar of Christ, who, in furiously persecuting the gospel, demonstrates by his conduct that he is Antichrist — I deny him to be the successor of Peter, who is doing his utmost to demolish every edifice that Peter built — and I deny him to be the head of the Church, who by his tyranny lacerates and dismembers the Church, after dissevering her from Christ, her true and only Head.—Calvin, “Tracts and Letters” vol 1, 219-220.

Knox: “Yea, to speak it in plain words; lest that we submit ourselves to Satan, thinking that we submit ourselves to Jesus Christ, for, as for your Roman kirk, as it is now corrupted, and the authority thereof, whereon stands the hope of your victory, I no more doubt but that it is the synagogue of Satan, and the head thereof, called the pope, to be that man of sin, of whom the apostle speaks.” (John Knox, The History of the Reformation of Religion in Scotland, p.65)

Knox: Knox wrote to abolish “that tyranny which the pope himself has for so many ages exercised over the church” and that the pope should be recognized as “the very antichrist, and son of perdition, of whom Paul speaks.” Taken from “The Zurich Letters” pg. 199 by John Knox.

Wesley: “The man of sin, the son of perdition— ...in many respects, the Pope has an indisputable claim to those titles. He is, in an emphatical sense, the man of sin, as he increases all manner of sin above measure. And he is, too, properly styled, the son of perdition, as he has caused the death of numberless multitudes, both of his opposers and followers, destroyed innumerable souls, and will himself perish everlastingly. He it is that opposes himself to the emperor, once his rightful sovereign; and that exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, commanding angels, and putting kings under his feet, both of whom are called gods in scripture; claiming the highest power, the highest honor; suffering himself, not once only, to be styled God or vice-god. Indeed no less is implied in his ordinary title, “Most Holy Lord,” or, “Most Holy Father.” So that he sits enthroned in the temple of God – Mentioned Rev. 11:1. Declaring himself that he is God, claiming the prerogatives which belong to God alone.—Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament, p. 216”

Roger Williams: [speaking of the Pope, Williams said]: “the pretended Vicar of Christ on earth, who sits as God over the Temple of God, exalting himself not only above all that is called God, but over the souls and consciences of all his vassals, yea over the Spirit of Christ, over the Holy Spirit, yea, and God himself...speaking against the God of heaven, thinking to change times and laws; but he is the son of perdition (II Thess. 2).” The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, by Froom, Vol. 3, pg. 52.

Westminster Confession: ““There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ. Nor can the pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof; but is that Antichrist, that man of sin and son of perdition that exalteth himself in the church against Christ and all that is called God.” Taken from Philip Schaff’s, The Creeds of Christendom, With a History and Critical Notes, III, p. 658, 659, Ch. 25, sec. 6.

Cotton Mather: “The oracles of God foretold the rising of an Antichrist in the Christian Church: and in the Pope of Rome, all the characteristics of that Antichrist are so marvelously answered that if any who read the Scriptures do not see it, there is a marvelous blindness upon them.” Taken from The Fall of Babylon by Cotton Mather in Froom’s book, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 3, pg. 113.

All Reformers: “Wycliffe, Tyndale, Luther, Calvin, Cranmer; in the seventeenth century, Bunyan, the translators of the King James Bible and the men who published the Westminster and Baptist confessions of Faith; Sir Isaac Newton, Wesley, Whitfield, Jonathan Edwards; and more recently Spurgeon, Bishop J.C. Ryle and Dr. Martin Lloyd-Jones; these men among countless others, all saw the office of the Papacy as the antichrist.” Taken from All Roads Lead to Rome, by Michael de Semlyen. Dorchester House Publications, p. 205. 1991.

According to the Reformers of the Protestant denominations, the papal power is Babylon the Great, the Mother of harlots; she is the antichrist and the man of sin, and she is seeking to rule the world one last time! Is anyone working with her in this effort? Revelation 17:2 and 18 record for us these insightful words, “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” Verse 18 says, “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.” Wow! The political leaders of the world, be they dictators, prime ministers, presidents, premiers, or the like, the Bible says these political powers are puppets in the hands of the papacy! Rome herself has made this very clear in her own publications. ““Why, if the government of the United States were at war with the Church, we would say tomorrow, ‘To Hell with the government of the United States;’ and if the church and all the governments of the world were at war, we would say: ‘To Hell with all the governments of the world.’ Why it is the pope has such tremendous power? Why the pope is the ruler of the world. All the emperors, all the kings, all the princes, all the presidents of the world are as these ALTAR BOYS of mine.” Priest Phelan, Western Watchman, June 27, 1912, emphasis supplied. Pray, friend, as you never have before that political leaders would throw off the wicked shackles of Rome and stand in their God ordained positions!

Do we have a conspiracy yet? Remember, Webster’s told us that a conspiracy is ‘an agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.’ So far, Revelation 17 and 18 have told us emphatically that we have a CONSPIRACY and that is a FACT! You can take that to the bank. Friend, you may say, “Oh, the leader of my country would never do ANYTHING bad and the Roman Catholic leadership are ALL fine men of God! How dare you say such things! I didn’t say them, Jesus did! The Lord Jesus loves you and me more than any leader or prelate. He would never lie to you! He wants to save you in His soon, coming kingdom.

Does it stop there? Is it just the papacy and the leaders of our world who are involved in a sinister plot to entrap us all in rebellion against the principles of Heaven? The Bible does not stop there. Revelation 18:11-15 declares, “And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more. The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing...”

The merchants of the earth? The Bible says the merchants are those who buy and sell every commodity known to man. Those people who sell oil and have stores all over the world and trade worldwide. These are people that tell bankers what to do. The worlds wealthy remain rich as they are willing to sell their souls to Rome/Jesuits. Revelation 18:15 is clear; the papacy rules the rich. The international bankers go as the papacy bids her. While these wealthy people are ruled over by Rome, remember, these wealthy people control the media. So, the papacy/Jesuits tell the wealthy what they want in the media and the wealthy tell the media people what to say! This is all locked together in a global conspiracy!

Now, we have three entities tied together; the Papal power/Jesuits, the political power of earth, and the wealthy. With every word comes a wider enveloping conspiracy. Are there any other partners in this heinous plan against humanity? Well, Revelation 17:5 says, “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” Well, the papacy is the Mother whore. Thus, a false church is identified as an impure woman. Then, the harlot daughters must be the churches today that are following in the footsteps of Rome! Alberto Rivera said that there aren’t any mainstream churches today that have not been taken over by Rome. “, all the mainstream churches were taken over by 1980. Dr. Rivera explained that when he was under the extreme oath of the Jesuits, he was told that a secret sign was to be given to the Jesuits world-wide when the ecumenical movement had successfully wiped out Protestantism, in preparation for the signing of a concordat between the Vatican and the U.S. “The sign was to be when a President of the U.S. took his oath of office facing an obelisk. For the first time in U.S. history, the swearing in ceremonies were moved to the West front of the Capitol, and President Reagan faced the Washington Monument. This happened January 20, 1981.” Jack Chick, The Godfathers, Alberto Part Three, Chick Publications, page 26 Is that why all churches today are silent on declaring the papal power to be the antichrist of the Bible? Is that why all churches today are involved in ecumenical gatherings where truth is destroyed and it is all about sacrificing historic beliefs of the past? Pray for men who will stand up and declare the truth of God! “The greatest want of the world is the want of men - men who will not be bought or sold; men who in their inmost souls are true and honest; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall.” (Education, p. 57).

Now, we have four groups united together against God and His truth. The papacy/Jesuits, the political leaders, the wealthy, and the churches all together to rebel against the Lord Jesus and His truth. That is a conspiracy! Fact! There is one last thing Rome uses for her wicked purposes. “And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:24 History records for us that the papacy/Jesuits killed millions through time. Those who dared to follow the teachings of the Bible were hunted, slaughtered, split in two, and destroyed by Rome. The Inquisition was just one tool in her arsenal. However, the Bible says the papacy is responsible for killing machines that eliminate people. Killing machines like war, terror attacks; anything that leads to the deaths of millions of people rests at the footsteps of the Vatican! What about pandemics that kill millions, yeah, billions, before this thing is all over?

Are you saying that Rome/Jesuits had something to do with the current pandemic? Are you saying the papacy is behind this global tragedy that has killed hundreds of thousands of people to date? What an idiot you are; everyone knows it originated in Wuhan, China and that is the end of the story! We have been told by the media that it originated there and it did! Ah, but who was behind it? Who pushed the program in Wuhan that has caused a global tragedy? Are you ready to listen?

Coronavirus: Wuhan-Catholic Connection, chapter 3

What has been the story from day one in this coronavirus conundrum? The story has been thus, In the public mind, the origin story of coronavirus seems well fixed: in late 2019 someone at the now world-famous Huanan seafood market in Wuhan was infected with a virus from an animal. The rest is part of an awful history still in the making, with Covid-19 spreading from that first cluster in the capital of China's Hubei province to a pandemic that has killed about 350,000 people so far.

December 31-January 11

On December 31 last year, China alerted the WHO to several cases of unusual pneumonia in Wuhan, a city of 11 million people. The virus was unknown. Several of those infected worked at the city's Huanan Seafood Wholesale Market, which was shut down on January 1. As health experts worked to identify the virus amid growing alarm, the number of infections exceeded 40.

On January 5, Chinese officials ruled out the possibility that this was a recurrence of the severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) virus - an illness that originated in China and killed more than 770 people worldwide in 2002-2003.

On January 7, officials announced they had identified a new virus, according to the WHO. The novel virus was named 2019-nCoV and was identified as belonging to the coronavirus family, which includes SARS and the common cold.

On January 11, China announced its first death from the virus, a 61-year-old man who had purchased goods from the seafood market. Treatment did not improve his symptoms after he was admitted to hospital and he died of heart failure on the evening of January 9.

January 13 - 19

The WHO reported on January 13 a case in Thailand, the first outside of China, in a woman who had arrived from Wuhan.

On January 17, as a second death was reported in Wuhan, health authorities in the US announced that three airports would start screening passengers arriving from the city. Authorities in the US, Nepal, France, Australia, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Vietnam and Taiwan confirmed cases over the following days.

January 20 - 26

On January 20, China reported a third death and more than 200 infections, with cases also reported outside Hubei province including in Beijing, Shanghai and Shenzhen. Meanwhile, a Chinese expert on infectious diseases confirmed human-to-human transmission to state broadcaster CCTV, raising fears of a major outbreak as millions travelled for the Lunar New Year holiday. The cities of Wuhan, Xiantao and Chibi in Hubei province were placed under effective quarantine on January 23 as air and rail departures were suspended. By the end of the week, more areas were placed under lockdown affecting a total of 56 million people. The WHO said that the outbreak did not yet constitute a public emergency of international concern and there was "no evidence" of the virus spreading between humans outside of China.

January 27 - February 2

On January 30, the WHO declared the coronavirus a global emergency as the death toll in China jumped to 170, with 7,711 cases reported in the country, where the virus had spread to all 31 provinces. By the end of the week, China reported 304 deaths amid 14,380 infections. Within a few days, new cases were confirmed in India, Philippines, Russia, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, Germany, Japan, Singapore, the US, the UAE and Vietnam.

On February 2, the Philippines reported the first death outside China, the victim being a Chinese man from Wuhan, the capital of Hubei province where the new coronavirus was detected in late 2019.

March 23 - 29

In the US, the White House and Senate leaders of both parties struck an agreement on March 25 on a sweeping $2 trillion measure to aid workers, businesses and a healthcare system strained by pandemic. By the end of the week, the US accounted for the highest number of coronavirus infections in the world, recording more than 124,000 cases and 2,000 deaths, more than double the figure two days before. Meanwhile, as the number of cases worldwide surpassed 600,000, with more than 27,000 deaths on March 27, India and South Africa joined the countries to impose lockdowns. Kenya, Kazakhstan and Honduras reported their first deaths, while Johnson announced he had tested positive. In Europe, Spain recorded 838 new coronavirus deaths over the previous 24 hours on March 29, marking the country's highest daily jump in fatalities. The country was now second only to Italy where the death toll shot past 10,000 with 889 new deaths. (taken from Aljazeera, May 18, 2020)

The previous paragraphs make it very clear that the virus had its origins in Wuhan, China back in December. From this epicenter, the virus has now spread all over the world, killing hundreds of thousands of people and disrupting the lives of everyone on this planet. And you say, this has everything to do with Wuhan, China and NOTHING to do with the Vatican! That is very perceptive of you. Here goes.....

“Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, warned members of the incoming Trump administration in January 2017 about the inevitability of a "surprise outbreak" of a new disease. He said at the time that the US needed to do more to prepare. "There is no question that there will be a challenge to the coming administration in the arena of infectious diseases," Fauci said during a speech at Georgetown University, adding, "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

How did Fauci know this? How did he know there would be a pandemic during the Trump administration? Isn't Fauci a doctor? He sounds more like a prophet. , "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

The following two statements shed on light on how Fauci could be so sure that a pandemic would strike during the Trump administration. "Dr. Anthony Fauci, a member of the coronavirus task force, had previously backed funding for a controversial lab in Wuhan, China, that has been studying the coronavirus in bats, reports said. Fauci's National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases had shelled out a total of $7.4 million to the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab — which has become the focus of theories about the origin of COVID-19, according to Newsweek. The National Institutes of Health, which oversees the NIAID, shut down all funding to the lab last week. “At this time, NIH does not believe that the current project outcomes align with the program goals and agency priorities,” a deputy director at the agency wrote in a letter obtained by Politico. There is “increasing confidence” among officials in the Trump administration that the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab is the original site of the virus. A report by Fox News said embassy officials warned in January 2018 about inadequate safety there. The NIH defended its funding of the lab in a statement to Newsweek.” April 29, 2020, New York Post

Fauci's organization, the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan laboratory in China, knowing full well that they were studying the coronavirus in bats. If his organization sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan lab, then obviously Fauci was backing the research to the hilt. He not only knew of the experimenting, but backed it with millions of dollars. Fauci also believes in the golden rule. The one who dishes out the dough makes the rules! If Fauci was doling out 7.4 million, would it be safe to say that, he being a medical expert in infectious disease, was also part of what went on at Wuhan? The writing on the wall says yes!! This information is shocking, tying Anthony Fauci to Wuhan and the coronavirus.

The final comment from Newsweek magazine goes even further. “Dr. Anthony Fauci is an adviser to President Donald Trump and something of an American folk hero for his steady, calm leadership during the pandemic crisis. At least one poll shows that Americans trust Fauci more than Trump on the coronavirus pandemic—and few scientists are portrayed on TV by Brad Pitt. But just last year, the National Institute for Allergy and Infectious Diseases, the organization led by Dr. Fauci, funded scientists at the Wuhan Institute of Virology and other institutions for work on gain-of-function research on bat coronaviruses. In 2019, with the backing of NIAID, the National Institutes of Health committed $3.7 million over six years for research that included some gain-of-function work. The program followed another $3.7 million, 5-year project for collecting and studying bat coronaviruses, which ended in 2019, bringing the total to $7.4 million. Many scientists have criticized gain of function research, which involves manipulating viruses in the lab to explore their potential for infecting humans, because it creates a risk of starting a pandemic from accidental release.

SARS-CoV-2, the virus now causing a global pandemic, is believed to have originated in bats. U.S. intelligence, after originally asserting that the coronavirus had occurred naturally, conceded last month that the pandemic may have originated in a leak from the Wuhan lab. (At this point most scientists say it's possible—but not likely—that the pandemic virus was engineered or manipulated.) Dr. Fauci did not respond to Newsweek's requests for comment. NIH responded with a statement that said in part: "Most emerging human viruses come from wildlife, and these represent a significant threat to public health and biosecurity in the US and globally, as demonstrated by the SARS epidemic of 2002-03, and the current COVID-19 pandemic.... scientific research indicates that there is no evidence that suggests the virus was created in a laboratory. The NIH research consisted of two parts. The first part began in 2014 and involved surveillance of bat coronaviruses, and had a budget of $3.7 million. The program funded Shi Zheng-Li, a virologist at the Wuhan lab, and other researchers to investigate and catalogue bat coronaviruses in the wild. This part of the project was completed in 2019."
Newsweek, April 28, 2020

Researching viruses in laboratories is highly criticized by scientists because of the possibility of the virus being leaked and causing a pandemic. This is exactly what happened in Wuhan. Dr. Fauci's comments in 2017 would indicate that he knew that would be the case and warned it was coming!!! Was that part of his pre meditated plan to perfect a virus, pay for its research and perfection, and then have it leaked so that millions of people would die? Was Fauci already clear in his mind that once the virus was perfected in Wuhan that he would then have it released in order to infect millions? Was that why Fauci could speak with such arrogance in 2017 that a pandemic would hit the Trump administration? The three news sources that exposed this material are the Business Insider, the New York Post, and Newsweek! This material is shocking!

Why would Fauci pull such a stunt? What could possibly be his purpose or the purpose of those who control him? A little background on this reprehensible man provides the hidden clues. "His maternal grandfather, Giovanni Abys, was born in Switzerland and was an artist, noted for landscape and portrait painting, magazine illustrations (Italy) as well as graphic design for commercial labels, including olive oil cans. His grandparents emigrated from Italy to the United States in the late 19th century. Fauci grew up Catholic. Fauci attended Regis High School in Manhattan's Upper East Side, where he captained the school's basketball team and graduated in 1958. He then went to the College of the Holy Cross, graduating in 1962 with a Bachelor of Arts in classics. Fauci then attended medical school at Cornell University Medical College where he graduated first in his class with a Doctor of Medicine in 1966. He then completed an internship and residency in internal medicine at the New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, now known as New York Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medicine." So, Fauci is a devout Roman Catholic and attended the College of the Holy Cross. And what do we know about Holy Cross? Wikipedia says, "The College of the Holy Cross, or better known simply as Holy Cross, is a private Jesuit liberal arts college in Worcester, Massachusetts. Founded in 1843, Holy Cross is the oldest Catholic college in New England and one of the oldest in the United States. Opened as a school for boys under the auspices of the Society of Jesus, it was the first Jesuit College in New England. Today, Holy Cross is one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities." Wikipedia

Fauci used his profession to carry forward the global, papal/Jesuit agenda for the world. In a forthcoming chapter, we will see clearly what that agenda is. Fauci is not a calm, sensible man, but rather a cool, calculating medical madman in the Beltway!!

Coronavirus- Medical Madman in the Beltway, chapter 4

Dr. Anthony Fauci's bloody hands are all over the Wuhan Laboratory, the financing, planning, and implementation of spreading the coronavirus worldwide. His handlers, the Jesuits, have used this man to carry forward their global agenda. Is this the first time something like this has happened or are we just repeating history?.....

" Mengele was born in March 1911 into a wealthy Bavarian family, with a strict Catholic upbringing. He studied philosophy in Munich, where he encountered the racial ideology of Alfred Rosenberg. In 1931, at the age of 20, he joined the Stahlhelm (Steel Helmet), then the SA in 1933, and applied for party membership in 1937. Upon being accepted into the Nazi party, he applied for membership in the SS. He later studied medicine at the University of Frankfurt, after which he joined the Institute for Hereditary Biology and Racial Hygiene in 1934. It was here that he developed his studies in physical anthropology and genetics. Prior to his arrival at Auschwitz, he had published significant articles on genetic abnormalities and racial variations in primary features. His career in academia looking bright, but the war interrupted his progress, and he was placed with reserve medical corps and a Waffen SS unit. Wounded, he was declared unfit for combat, but promoted to captain. An ardent Nazi, he served as medical officer with the Waffen SS during WW2, and was appointed chief doctor at the Auschwitz concentration camp where Jews were selected either for labor, extermination or medical experimentation.” History.co.uk

Mengele was born and raised in the Jesuit stronghold of Bavaria. Throughout the Reformation and to the present day, the power of the papacy maintained a stranglehold over Bavaria. Here, Mengele was nursed on the wicked principles of the Jesuits which led to his horrific crimes against humanity at Auschwitz!

“Josef Mengele was known as the angel of death. He was a medical doctor used by the Nazis during World War II to carry out the extermination of Jews at Auschwitz. He was notorious for many things as the following quote will indicate. “Second only to Eichmann as a target of Nazi hunters, the doctor nicknamed the “Angel of Death” conducted macabre experiments among the prisoners at the Auschwitz death camp. An SS officer, Mengele was sent at the start of World War II to the eastern front to repel the Soviets and received an Iron Cross for his bravery and service. After being wounded and declared unfit for active duty, he was assigned to the Auschwitz death camp. There, he used the prisoners—particularly twins, pregnant women and the disabled—as human guinea pigs. Mengele even tortured and killed children with his medical experiments.” ‘The Seven Most Notorious Nazi’s Who Escaped to South America’, History Channel, Dec. 27, 2017

From the above quote, it is obvious that Mengele exterminated hundreds of thousands of people. His cruelties led him to be known as the 2nd most notorious Nazi war criminal. He used prisoners as human guinea pigs, doing experiments on them in the name of science. Sounds like someone else we know; just like the medical madman inside the Beltway---Anthony Fauci!!

“ Mengele, in distinctive white gloves, supervised the selection of Auschwitz’ incoming prisoners for either torturous labor or immediate extermination, shouting either “Right!” or “Left!” to direct them to their fate. Eager to advance his medical career by publishing “groundbreaking” work, he then began experimenting on live Jewish prisoners. In the guise of medical “treatment,” Mengele injected, or ordered others to inject, thousands of inmates with everything from petrol to chloroform to study the chemicals’ effects. Among other atrocities, he plucked out the eyes of Gypsy corpses to study eye pigmentation, and conducted numerous gruesome studies of twins. In 1943 he was appointed by Heinrich Himmler to be chief doctor at Birkenau, the supplementary extermination camp at Auschwitz, where he and his staff selected incoming Jews for labor or extermination and where he supervised medical experiments on inmates to discover means of increasing fertility (to increase the German “race”). His chief interest, however, was research on twins.” Wikipedia

Mengele was an arrogant man, hoping to advance his career at the expense of human beings. He killed children, pregnant women, and others to advance his great skills He was a butcher of human lives, caring not for anyone if they stood in his way of success. Do to his

'meritorious work' at Auschwitz; Mengele escaped capture at the end of the war. How did the 'Angel of Death' escape?

"After World War II, Mengele spent three-plus years in hiding in Germany. In 1949, with the help of a Catholic clergy member, the "Angel of Death" fled via Italy to Argentina where he owned a mechanical equipment shop and remarried under his own name in Uruguay in 1958. The doctor lived in various Buenos Aires suburbs, but after hearing of Eichmann's capture, went underground, first in Paraguay, then in Brazil. HOW HE ELUDED JUSTICE: West Germany had sent an extradition request to Argentina, which dragged its feet, claiming a review was necessary because the doctor's crimes had been "political." Nazi hunters pursued him for decades, but Mengele ultimately drowned off the Brazilian coast in 1979, felled by a stroke. Because he had operated under an assumed name in Brazil, his death wasn't verified until his remains were forensically tested in 1985." 'The Seven Most Notorious Nazi's Who Escaped to South America', History Channel, Dec. 27, 2017

The documents – which are discussed in Steinacher's book 'Nazis on the Run: How Hitler's henchmen fled justice' – offer a significant insight into Vatican thinking, particularly, because its own archives beyond 1939 are still closed. The Vatican has consistently refused to comment. Steinacher believes the Vatican's help was based on a hoped-for revival of European Christianity and dread of the Soviet Union. But through the Vatican Refugee Commission, war criminals were knowingly provided with false identities. 'The Guardian'

"Ratlines" were a system of escape routes for Nazis and other fascists fleeing Europe in the aftermath of World War II. These escape routes mainly led toward havens in Latin America, particularly Argentina, Chile, Paraguay, Colombia, Brazil, Uruguay, Mexico, Peru, Guatemala, Ecuador, and Bolivia, as well as the United States, Spain and Switzerland. There were two primary routes: the first went from Germany to Spain, then Argentina; the second from Germany to Rome to Genoa, then South America. The two routes developed independently but eventually came together. The ratlines were supported by clergy of the Catholic Church all the way to the top, including Pope Pius XII!

That the Vatican Ratlines are a fact of history is confirmed by countless sources. 'The Vatican against Europe' by Avro Manhattan; Smokescreens by Jack Chick; and 'Quest' by Frank Brandenburg all detail very accurately the ratlines used by the Vatican to help escaped murderers, rapists, and thieves of the Third Reich escape to South America. Mengele, the medical madman inside the Nazi Regime was one of many!

Mengele used his profession in the medical field to serve the purposes of the Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order. When someone works in a secular job and serves the Jesuits at the same time, he is called a Jesuit coadjutor. "And do Americans need to be told what Jesuits are?... they are a secret society, a sort of Masonic order, with super added features of revolting odiousness, and a thousand times more dangerous. They are not merely priests, or of one religious creed; they are merchants, and lawyers, and editors, and men of any profession, having no outward badge by which to be recognized; they are about in all your society. They can assume any character, that of angels of light, or ministers of darkness, to accomplish their one great end... They are all educated men, prepared and sworn to start at any moment, and in any direction, and for any service, commanded by the general of their order, bound to no family, community, or country, by the ordinary ties which bind men; and sold for life to the cause of the Roman Pontiff. — J. Wayne Laurens, The Crisis in America: or the Enemies of America Unmasked, G. D. Miller, 1855, pp. 265-267

Fauci, like Mengele in many, many ways, is serving the Jesuits through his profession and is a Jesuit coadjutor. The parallels between these two men are stunning.

- Both reared in Catholic homes.
- Both trained by the Jesuits.
- Both in the medical profession.
- Both have used their profession to kill hundreds of thousands of people.
- Both have been protected by their masters.
- Both had huge egos and sought to bring great glory to their church and themselves through their work.
- One man died in infamy and unless he repents of his heinous crimes against humanity, the other one will as well!

Both of these men were raised on the adage that ‘the ends justify the means’. Their goal is the utter destruction of everything for which the Protestant Reformation stands and the reestablishment of papal power to universal control. In order to achieve this end, they will kill, maim, and destroy people’s livelihoods. It doesn’t matter how much pain they inflict; they could care less. They are human robots, without feelings, without compassion; hell-bent on the annihilation of anything that stands in their way and the goals of their despicable masters the Jesuits!

Through the course of this coronavirus pandemic, it has become clear to many that there are many more issues than this illness. Let us face the music; more people have died from the flu in one year than this virus has killed this year! So, why the hype? Is there something else? Is there an agenda behind the scenes? Would it surprise you if the very things the Protestant Reformation gave to us have been under grave attack since the breakout of this virus? The Jesuits have used this virus, put into action by their imp, to attack Protestantism’s strongholds. This will be the subject of the next chapter.

Coronavirus-Ultimate Goals, chapter 5

Fauci pays Wuhan Lab to develop coronavirus in spite of the obvious. You research a virus, and in the process, it leaks out of the laboratory and it spreads through the population all around the world. Like a prophet, you tell Georgetown listeners and the Trump administration that there will be a pandemic during the Trump White House! You proceed full speed ahead knowing full well that the world will be brought to its knees and that 100's of thousands of people will die! Like a medical madman, you go full bore like an insane man because the end justifies the mean. Like Edward Smith aboard the Titanic on that fateful night, you head straight for the icebergs, knowing many will die because your masters have told you this is for the greater glory of the Catholic Church! What kind of a group of men would encourage such insanity?

The following quote gives a historical backdrop to the Jesuits and explains their mentality. "Throughout Christendom, Protestantism was menaced by formidable foes. The first triumphs of the Reformation past, Rome summoned new forces, hoping to accomplish its destruction. At this time the order of the Jesuits was created, the most cruel, unscrupulous, and powerful of all the champions of popery. Cut off from earthly ties and human interests, dead to the claims of natural affection, reason and conscience wholly silenced, they knew no rule, no tie, but that of their order, and no duty but to extend its power. The gospel of Christ had enabled its adherents to meet danger and endure suffering, undismayed by cold, hunger, toil, and poverty, to uphold the banner of truth in face of the rack, the dungeon, and the stake. To combat these forces, Jesuitism inspired its followers with a fanaticism that enabled them to endure like dangers, and to oppose to the power of truth all the weapons of deception. There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy. When appearing as members of their order, they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the sacred name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior the most criminal and deadly purposes were often concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, thefts, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of state, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of popish rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Romish worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind and dazzle and captivate the imagination, and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of popery. — E. G. White, The Great Controversy, pp. 234, 235, Pacific Press Publishing Assn., 1911.

What Anthony Fauci has done, in attacking Protestant ideals, fits into the Jesuits/ papacy's hands to bring the world to its knees in obeisance to Rome!! Therefore, in the minds of Rome's hierarchy, Fauci is a wonderful man! What are the ideals of Protestantism that have come under attack through this virus? A rocket scientist is not necessary to figure this one out. The current totals of unemployed who lost good jobs to take care of their families is around 4-5 million people. A recent study from Silicon Valley is declaring that it could take upwards of 10 years to bring those jobs back!! So, while millions of people lose their jobs, the economic fabric of America sits in shambles and is being drained! Another thing that has been assaulted is the civil and religious liberties that make this nation great. Finally, half a million people have died from this virus and the numbers continue to grow. For those who want to reduce the population of the world, this fits their plan perfectly.

Let us take a look at each of these things that have been assaulted during the coronavirus affair and see how fit into Protestantism. First, millions of good jobs have been lost. Many lower and middle classed jobs have been thrown to the wind. History tells us that in the Roman Empire period, the lower classes were called the plebian sector or poor class. The plebian members of society were predominantly poor, working either for the local lord or baron or priest. After the fall of Rome, the new names given to the poor classes were peasants or serfs. Like the plebian classes, the serfs and peasants were subject to their lord or noble who controlled the land and everything else. "Before the Protestant Reformation in the 1500's, all the nations of the world were poor, much like the continent of Africa today. After the Reformation, literacy flourished, economic principles were articulated, and entire nations rose out of poverty. This produced a thriving middle class for the first time in human history." 'Understanding the Culture: A survey of Social Engagement', Jeff Myers. The Reformation brought about a flourishing middle class made of artisans, welders, printers, and the like.

Before the Reformation, all the Papal hierarchy had to do was control the king, or the baron, or the land owner. If he was controlled, then it would be easy to control the illiterate serfs and peasants. With the rise of the Reformation and the middle class, people began thinking more for themselves, independent of lords and barons, making a way for themselves and their families. The middle class made it much more difficult to control the populace because these people would think for themselves and the papacy did not want this! In order to bring the world back under Rome's sway, the middle class thinking people must be reduced and finally eliminated in Rome's plan. Coronavirus went a long way toward achieving Rome's agenda!

Civil and religious liberty was virtually an unknown commodity during the Dark Ages of Papal tyranny. "Nevertheless, in defending a gospel of salvation "by faith alone," Luther introduced a new source of authority into the bloodstream of the West. For nearly a thousand years, every European man and woman owed allegiance to two kinds of authority: political (kings, nobles, magistrates) and religious (popes, councils, bishops, or their representatives). When it came to deciding matters of faith, however, Luther found both to be deeply flawed and untrustworthy....

“With the help of the printing press, this 16th century protest against corruption in the Catholic Church would drastically change the course of Christianity - and history itself. In the process, Luther laid bare the scandal of Christendom: a political society that preserved spiritual unity through coercion and violence. Dissent from orthodoxy was outlawed; heresy was rooted out and punished by fire and sword. The papal bull of 1520 excommunicating Luther from the Catholic Church, for example, accused him of promoting 41 heresies and “pestiferous errors.” One of the alleged errors was his view that “the burning of heretics is against the will of the Holy Spirit.” Luther offers his fullest treatment of these issues in Secular Authority where he sharply distinguished the aims of church and state, limiting the reach of government to preserving life and property.... Other reformers sought a radical separation of church and state, a concept that Luther ultimately rejected. Others went further in defending the rights of all religious believers, even heretics and non-believers, in civic and political life.... In the 18th century, the United States became the first nation to enshrine in its constitution the Protestant conception of the rights of conscience. James Madison, the mind behind the First Amendment, was inspired by Luther’s achievement. In a letter to F.L. Schaeffer, dated 1821, Madison explained that the American model of religious liberty “illustrates the excellence of a system which, by a due distinction, to which the genius and courage of Luther led the way, between what is due to Caesar and what is due God, best promotes the discharge of both obligations.” ‘National Geographic’, Joseph Loconte, Ph.D., October 27, 2017

By distinguishing between duties to God and duties to man, Luther paved the way to church state separation, the inherent rights of man to civil and religious freedom, and paved the way for the grand experiment called America!! In the eyes of the Roman hierarchy, these blood bought Protestant freedoms cannot stand! Thus, we are confronted by a pandemic and the mad man of the Beltway!

What about population control? “The Georgia Guide stones are a granite monument erected in 1980 in Elbert County, Georgia, in the United States. A set of 10 guidelines is inscribed on the structure in eight modern languages and a shorter message is inscribed at the top of the structure in four ancient language scripts. The monument stands at an approximate elevation of 750 feet (230 m) above sea level, about 90 miles (140 km) east of Atlanta, 45 miles (72 km) from Athens, Georgia and 9 miles (14 km) north of the center of the city of Elberton... The anonymity of the guide stones' authors and their apparent advocacy of population control, eugenics, and internationalism have made them a target for controversy.” Wikipedia The Georgia guide stones reek of Jesuit/papal globalism and population reduction. While we have seen with the coronavirus over 350,000 dead worldwide, there could be many, many more before this is all over.

Coronavirus, Anthony Fauci, job losses, destruction of civil and religious liberty, and population reduction, fit very nicely into the wicked schemes of the Jesuit/papal agenda. ‘Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy.’ GC, pg. 234 There is but one more piece to this puzzle and that is the reestablishment of papal supremacy. The last three popes have made very clear what the final piece will be in making the entire world Catholic. When the final piece of the puzzle will be implemented, only the God of heaven knows. But what the final piece will be; well, there is no doubt. We will look at the papacy's final hurrah in the next chapter!

Coronavirus-The Papacy's Final Hurrah, chapter 6

It is obvious that the papacy/Jesuits have a very clear goal in this crisis. As we discussed in the previous chapter, they have wanted to destroy middle class jobs, annihilate civil and religious liberty, and reduce the population. These are the immediate goals that will lead to Rome's final hurrah. Once they hit their ultimate goal, the world will completely unravel, paving the way for the 2nd Coming of Jesus Christ in the clouds of heaven. Whether the papacy hits their final mark for this planet during this pandemic is totally in the hands of the great God of Heaven! Time rests in His hands!

Actually, for the last several decades, pontiffs have been pushing their ultimate goal for the world. With each one, their plans have become more and more crystalized. We will look at the last three popes and see how their plans are maturing. Lastly, of the three, we will see how Francis and his fiends are planning to use coronavirus. Amazing it is to see how the Jesuit Fauci creates the virus and then Rome, his mentors, gives the solution to the problem they created. Sounds like the Hegelian Dialectic!!!

Here goes....In 1998; John Paul II came out with his encyclical entitled 'Dies Domini' or the sacredness of Sunday. One clip from the encyclical makes his objectives quite clear. "In this doctrine, Pope John Paul encourages the Catholic population to 'rediscover the meaning' behind keeping the Lord's Day holy. Pope John Paul II explains the meaning of the Sunday in the light of Christian tradition. To celebrate Sunday is to make present the graces of the Paschal mystery, which is the climax of the salvation history:

- The Lord's Day — as Sunday was called from Apostolic times (1) — has always been accorded special attention in the history of the Church because of its close connection with the very core of the Christian mystery. In fact, in the weekly reckoning of time Sunday recalls the day of Christ's Resurrection. It is Easter which returns week by week, celebrating Christ's victory over sin and death, the fulfillment in him of the first creation and the dawn of "the new creation" (cf. 2 Cor 5:17). It is the day which recalls in grateful adoration the world's first day and looks forward in active hope to "the last day", when Christ will come in glory (cf. Acts 1:11; 1 Th. 4:13-17) and all things will be made new (cf. Rev 21:5)."

John Paul butchers the Bible and history in order to then crush all the Bible verses that clearly refer to the 7th day of the week or Sabbath and to apply them to Sunday. The Bible clearly declares, "And he said unto them, the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath: Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.” Mark 2:27, 28 Christ is Lord of the 7th day Sabbath or Saturday! John Paul seeks to shred the Biblical and historical validity of the Sabbath and exalt Sun worship. He also says that Sunday is sacred because Christ rose on that day. Nowhere in the Bible is this declared. John Paul has sought to set himself above the Bible and the Creator Himself.

Joseph Ratzinger, known also as Benedict the 16th, was the author of John Paul’s Dies Domini. It should be no surprise that he too exalted Sunday. Notice, “Posted Sep 10, 07 8:25 AM CDT in Arts & Living, World (Newser) – “Pope Benedict has urged Catholics to keep Sunday special amid the “mad rush” of the modern world. He encouraged people to set the day aside for reflection on faith and the dangers humans pose to the world, including destruction of “God’s creation,” an apparent reference to environmental harm. “Sunday has been transformed into leisure time. If leisure time lacks an inner focus, ultimately it becomes wasted time,” he said.

‘Pope Benedict XVI celebrating Mass at St. Stephen’s in Vienna’

Vienna, Sep 9, 2007 / 05:11 pm (CNA). - As Pope Benedict XVI bid farewell to Austria today, he called on everyone to live Sunday’s in a Christian manner. Quoting a 20th century German bishop, Benedict exhorted people to “Give the soul its Sunday and give Sunday its soul.” Speaking during his homily at St. Stephen’s cathedral in the heart of Vienna, the Holy Father’s encouraged the faithful to enjoy true leisure. He also noted that while leisure is a good thing amid the mad rush of the modern world, it can also be a danger if it becomes just wasted time. Instead, the Pope urged Christians to set aside Sundays to devote themselves to Christ’s teachings and “create oases of selfless love in a world where so often only power and wealth seem to count for anything.”

In Benedict’s messages, he doesn’t mention the ‘Biblical’ basis for Sunday because there is none! What he does is tie Sunday to the environment. In order to maintain the environment, we need to have time off to let the environment be restored! Has anyone heard this during coronavirus???

Finally, Francis has taken what Benedict said and expanded on it in his encyclical in 2015 called Laudato Si. He took Benedict’s comments and created an entire encyclical around saving the environment. The center piece of his comments focused in on SUNDAY! Notice, ““On Sunday, our participation in the Eucharist has special importance. Sunday, like the Jewish Sabbath, is meant to be a day which heals our relationships with God, with ourselves, with others and with the world. Sunday is the day of the Resurrection, the “first day” of the new creation, whose first fruits are the Lord’s risen humanity, the pledge of the final transfiguration of all created reality. It also proclaims “man’s eternal rest in God”.168 In this way, Christian spirituality incorporates the value of relaxation and festivity. We tend to demean contemplative rest as something unproductive and unnecessary, but this is to do away with the very thing which is most important about work: its meaning. We are called to include in our work a dimension of receptivity and gratuity, which is quite different from mere inactivity. Rather, it is another way of working, which forms part of our very essence. It protects human action from becoming empty activism; it also prevents that unfettered greed and sense of isolation which make us seek personal gain to the detriment of all else. The law of weekly rest forbade work on the seventh day, “so that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your maidservant, and the stranger, may be refreshed” (Ex 23:12). Rest opens our eyes to the larger picture and gives us renewed sensitivity to the rights of others. And so the day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds it light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor. Number 237

Francis lets us know that Sunday was set apart to heal relationships and the world. So, in order for families and the environment to heal, we must rest on Sunday. World leaders will be persuaded to adopt “Laudato Si” as the environmental solution to avoid another future pandemic, much worse than COVID-19. That is the goal, and this intention was published a few days ago by the Vatican. Mauricio Lopez is the Executive Secretary of the Pan-Amazon Ecclesial Network (REPAM), an agency appointed by the Vatican that promotes the Pope’s ecological message to international agencies, governments and world leaders. REPAM is a great defender of Laudato Si and Mauricio Lopez is a Jesuit-trained layman and advocate of pagan-idolatry, earth worship and communion with the planet. On April 19, 2020, the Vatican’s official news agency published Mauricio Lopez’s assessment of the entire coronavirus crisis. The article was titled “Communion with Mother Earth will be resurrected after the pandemic” and addressed Laudato Si, COVID-19 and the need to act “NOW.” As hundreds of millions of people, if not billions, are locked up in their homes and as human activity has been paralyzed, Mauricio Lopez is pressing the Pope’s message and urging the world to adopt a new pantheistic social structure. He wrote: “Once we overcome the hardest crisis of COVID-19, an integral vision will be necessary, because as the Encyclical Laudato Si says: “everything is interconnected”, and an integral conversion is urgent as proposed in the Amazon Synod as an ecclesial and planetary call. Right now the most important category in human history seems to be: INTEGRAL ECOLOGY. We must rethink all our ways of life and social structures in light of it, but until now we have not understood it” (emphasis original, Vatican News: Communion with Mother Earth will resurrect after the Pandemic, paragraph 13). [3]

Scientists have made multiple serendipitous discoveries about the impact of shutdowns around the world during the novel coronavirus pandemic:

— NASA satellite images have documented a 30 percent decline in nitrous oxide levels (an air pollutant produced by industries and cars burning fossil fuels) in China (China has confined only certain cities and not the entire country).

— Carbon monoxide emissions (mainly from cars and trucks) are down 50 percent in New York City, according to researchers at Columbia University.

— The EPA has recorded the best air quality in Los Angeles than at anytime during the last 40 years.

Meanwhile, a recently completed study confirmed that pollutants at ground level are diminishing globally (based on a two-week surveillance of 27 countries):

— Nitrous oxide is down 29 percent;

— Ozone, a byproduct of the chemical reaction when pollutants interact with sunlight, is off by an average of 11 percent; and,

— Fine particulate matter (a leading cause of death), which is most notable in the form of haze or smog, is lower by an average of 9 percent.

These are staggering numbers published by a joint team of Norwegian and German researchers. But it was something else they said that really should cause everyone to pause and reflect. Essentially, they lamented that the global lockdown was not sustainable (due to the financial catastrophe it would perpetuate) because of “the potential health benefits gained from reducing ‘business as usual’ air pollutant emissions from economic activities.” So, what if a lockdown on major activity was sustainable for a time each year, or each week- just not all at one time?

The coronavirus shutdown has helped our environment. There is less toxic matter in the air. Air pollution is down considerably. In order to help the environment, we must take time off to make it happen. Francis told us one key to helping the environment is taking time off on Sunday! Could Covid 19 be used to bring in the papacy’s last hurrah? Only time will tell. If Vatican spokesman Lopez has anything to say about it, it will.

Why is Rome so hell bent on bringing in a Sunday law? Rome can tell you herself. “Prove to me from the Bible alone that I am bound to keep Sunday holy. There is no such law in the Bible. It is a law of the holy Catholic Church alone. The Bible says ‘Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.’ The Catholic Church says, No. By my divine power I abolish the Sabbath day and command you to keep holy the first day of the week. And lo! The entire civilized world bows down in reverent obedience to the command of the Holy Catholic Church. — Thomas Enright, CSSR, President, Redemptorist College (Roman Catholic), Kansas City, MO., February 18, 1884.

“The observance of Sunday by the Protestants is an homage they pay, in spite of themselves, to the authority of the [Catholic] church. — Monsignor Louis Segur, Plain Talk about the Protestantism of Today (1868), p. 213.

“If Protestants would follow the Bible, they should worship God on the Sabbath Day [Saturday]. In keeping the Sunday they are following a law of the Catholic Church. — Albert Smith, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, replying for the Cardinal in a letter of February 10, 1920.

“The State, in passing laws for the due sanctification of Sunday, is unwittingly acknowledging the authority of the Catholic Church, and carrying out more or less faithfully its prescriptions. The Sunday, as a day of the week set apart for the obligatory public worship of Almighty God, to be sanctified by a suspension of all servile labor, trade, and worldly avocations and by exercises of devotion, is purely a creation of the Catholic Church. — The American Catholic Quarterly Review, January, 1883, pp. 152, 139.

“Protestants... accept Sunday rather than Saturday as the day for public worship after the Catholic Church made the change.... But the Protestant mind does not seem to realize that...in observing the Sunday, they are accepting the authority of the spokesman for the church, the Pope. — Our Sunday Visitor, February 5, 1950. It is well to remind the Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, and all other Christians, that the Bible does not support them anywhere in their observance of Sunday. Sunday is an institution of the Roman Catholic Church, and those who observe the day observe a commandment of the Catholic Church. — Priest Brady, in an address, reported in the Elizabeth, N.J. “News,” March 18, 1903.

Will Francis and the Jesuits be successful in bringing about an environmental Sunday? In doing so, they would bring untold evil upon the entire world! Only time will tell how far the Sovereign Lord allows them to go and how fast. These earth shaking events are out of our control. This is part of a cosmic conflict. One thing we can control and focus on is our physical health. Is our health dependent on wearing face masks, staying 6 feet apart in public and staying home as much as possible? Fauci has laid out these guidelines along with the WHO. Fauci created the monster before us. Is his solution medically correct? We will look at this in our final chapter.

Coronavirus – Masks and staying inside, chapter 7

Dr. Anthony Fauci warned of a pandemic during the Trump White House. He has funded laboratories in Wuhan, China to do research on coronavirus from bats. Clearly, that research spilled out, as planned, to create the pandemic that is killing people all over the globe. Fauci was one of the loudest voices recommending the use of masks, social distancing, and staying inside. Considering what he has already done to bring about the current tragedy has left the author wondering about his health recommendations. Is the wearing of a mask, social distancing, and staying home the answers for the current crisis? Of course, many doctors agree with the madman in the Beltway. Agreeing with a madman doesn't sound very wise. Are there alternatives?

“Dr. Russell Blaylock, a retired neurosurgeon and author, cautions that face masks cannot entirely protect you from getting sick and catching pathogens. He adds that it can also pose a serious health risk for wearers. He stresses that only ill people should wear face masks. Dr. Blaylock says that exhaled viruses would not be given a chance to escape if wearing a mask. He says that the virus would further concentrate and circulate within the nasal passages and could eventually travel into the brain. According to Dr. Blaylock, there have been no studies conducted to establish that either a cloth mask or the N95 mask has an impact on the transmission of the coronavirus. It was not until recently that the Commission on Disease Control and Prevention changed its guidelines for wearing face masks. Previously, they only advised sick people to wear protective masks, but now they encourage everyone to wear them when out in public since it has been found out that some could be asymptomatic carriers of the virus. The CDC also has guidelines for wearing cloth masks to slow the spread of the coronavirus.” The Science Times, May 18, 2020

Dr. Blaylock stated this about wearing masks:

1. Says that exhaled viruses would not be given a chance to escape if wearing a mask.
2. That the virus would further concentrate and circulate within the nasal passages and could eventually travel into the brain.
3. There have been no studies conducted to establish that either a cloth mask or the N95 mask has an impact on the transmission of the coronavirus.

“Aside from the lack of scientific evidence pointing to requiring the use of a face mask for preventive measures, several studies have explored the dangers of wearing a face mask, especially for long periods. These dangers include increased airway resistance, accumulation of carbon dioxide, hypoxia or inadequate oxygen supply, headaches, and even other life-threatening complications. In a study conducted by the National Taiwan University Hospital, it has been found that the use of N-95 masks in healthcare workers has caused them to experience hypoxemia, the low level of oxygen in the blood, and hypercapnia, an elevation in the blood's carbon dioxide levels. Another study reported findings of headache in health professionals using the same protective face mask. Similarly, pregnant women wearing N-95 masks were also found to have breathing difficulties associated with the use of the mask. Researchers suggest that the benefits of using N95 masks to prevent contraction of infectious diseases should be weighed against possible respiratory consequences linked with extended use of N95 masks. Newer evidence also reveals that the coronavirus may enter the brain in some cases. By wearing a mask, viruses released upon expiration will not be given a chance to escape and will further congregate in the nasal passages. This allows the virus to enter the olfactory nerves and travel further, eventually reaching the brain. Dr. Blaylock says that one should not attack or criticize healthy people who do not wear masks, as studies point out that it may be a wise choice after all.” The Science Times, May 18, 2020

Notice some of the consequences of wearing a mask for periods of time from the above mentioned studies.

- These dangers include increased airway resistance, accumulation of carbon dioxide, hypoxia or inadequate oxygen supply, headaches, and even other life-threatening complications.
- They have caused them to experience hypoxemia, the low level of oxygen in the blood, and hypercapnia, an elevation in the blood's carbon dioxide levels.
- Viruses released upon expiration will not be given a chance to escape and will further congregate in the nasal passages. This allows the virus to enter the olfactory nerves and travel further, eventually reaching the brain.

Knowing that a madman made the recommendation to wear masks and medical people and research have warned of dangers in wearing them for periods of time would make one think twice before doing something just because the Beltway 'expert' says so!

One other study done by a brave nurse chronicled the following bad effects of wearing a mask. She noted:

- We are breathing in bacteria.
- This makes us more prone to infection.
- The CO<sub>2</sub> goes back into our bloodstream, creates acid and causes an imbalance in our ph.
- We are working against our immune system.

As Dr. Blaylock, a brave nurse, and studies have shown, there are serious questions raised by wearing a mask. Is there an alternative that can assist us in staying well and healthy during this virus? I believe there are 8 practical ways to a strong immune system and healthy living. These are in no particular order. They are all important. The first one is our diet. Eating a plant based diet is critical to our health. Dr. Michael Greger says, "that the majority of clinical studies demonstrate that a whole food, plant-based diet is the best for the prevention of disease. This diet contains primarily fruits, vegetables, nuts, seeds, whole grains, beans and legumes." From his book, 'How Not to Die'.

There are so many other important aspects to the importance of diet.

- We should eat at 5 hour intervals. Our stomach needs to rest too!
- We should not eat between our meals because it overtaxes the system.
- We should not eat before bed.

- Our lightest meal should be the last one-dinner!

The next health principle that is critical to a strong immune system is exercise. Getting our heart rate up, sweating impurities out of our system, strengthening our muscles, are essential to physical and mental health. During this virus, depression, alcoholism, child abuse and suicide have rocked this world. Want to learn more about exercise and depression? Many studies show that people who exercise regularly benefit with a positive boost in mood and lower rates of depression. What Are the Psychological Benefits of Exercise With Depression? Improved self-esteem is a key psychological benefit of regular physical activity. When you exercise, your body releases chemicals called endorphins. These endorphins interact with the receptors in your brain that reduce your perception of pain. Endorphins also trigger a positive feeling in the body, similar to that of morphine. For example, the feeling that follows a run or workout is often described as "euphoric." That feeling, known as a "runner's high," can be accompanied by a positive and energizing outlook on life.

The third principle is water. Water on the inside and on the outside is very important for a strong immune system. Scientists tell us we should drink half our body weight in ounces every day. If we are sweating a lot, then we should drink more! For a strong immune system, out with the coffee, out with soft drinks, and high sugar juices and guzzle some water! "“A lack of water dehydrates the fluids, tissues, and cells of the body. It causes the blood to thicken, increasing the risks of stroke and heart disease. Dehydration can mimic hypoglycemia, causing headaches, tiredness, and fainting spells. The body requires water constantly. Most of this water is recycled within the body itself. The body loses at least ten cups of water every day. The food we eat provides two to four cups of water, so we need to drink at least six to eight glasses each day to replace the difference. Pure plain water is the best way to replace the fluid you need. Many sugar-laden beverages actually result in a loss of water from the system, because it requires more water to metabolize the sugar in a drink than the drink itself provides. Caffeine and alcohol are both diuretics which cause the body to lose water. You need an extra glass of water for every high-sugar, caffeinated, or alcoholic beverage you drink. It is very important to know that drinking water with meals dilutes the gastric juice and slows the digestive process. The best time to drink water is between meals. "Water is the best liquid possible to cleanse the tissues.... Drink some, a little time before or after a meal."—Ellen G. White, Healthful Living, p. 226

Sleep is the next principle to a strong immune system. "During the day, the chief work of the body is done, but during the night, the body is revived, the muscles are built up, the brain tissue is restored, and the nerves are recharged. For growth and health, a sufficient amount of leisure and rest is essential. When the body is deprived of sleep, it is unable to rebuild and recharge itself adequately. There is an increase in irritability, while creativity, concentration, and efficiency suffer. Sleep deprivation impairs judgment, causing values and priorities to change. Continued loss of sleep can result in exhaustion, depression, delusions, paranoia, and hallucinations. Losing as little three hours of sleep in a single night can cut the effectiveness of your immune system in half. Slowed reaction time and decreased concentration lead to an increase in car accidents. As many a 30% of fatal automobile accidents are caused by a driver falling asleep at the wheel. In a classic health study, it was found that people who regularly slept seven to eight hours each night had a lower death rate than those who slept less than that. Do you nod off whenever you're not active, need an alarm clock to wake up, or sleep longer on your days off? If so, you are probably not getting enough sleep." Amazing Discoveries

The madman in the Beltway and his cronies at the CDC have said nothing to the world about building our immune systems. Why is that? I guess they are just plain too smart or too dumb?????? The next principle is temperance. You say, that is easy because I do not drink alcohol. Friend, there is so much more to temperance than alcohol! Temperance can include moderation and abstinence, but it is more than either one. As Francis E. Willard wrote, "Temperance is moderation in the things that are good and total abstinence from the things that are foul." Many people believe that "Moderation" is the KEY. We strongly disagree. Think about it...is cocaine OK in moderation? Of course not! You see, True Temperance means to abstain completely from things that are bad for you and to use "moderately" those things that are good for you.

Fresh air, did you get that, fresh air, is the next principle. Fresh air is good for your digestive system. Fresh air helps improve blood pressure and heart rate. Fresh air makes you happier. Fresh air strengthens your immune system. Fresh air cleans your lungs. Fresh air gives you more energy and a sharper mind. "In order to have good blood, we must breathe well. Full, deep inspirations of pure air, which fill the lungs with oxygen, purify the blood. They impart to it a bright color and send it, a life-giving current, to every part of the body. A good respiration soothes the nerves; it stimulates the appetite and renders digestion more perfect; and it induces sound, refreshing sleep. The lungs should be allowed the greatest freedom possible. Their capacity is developed by free action; it diminishes if they are cramped and compressed." Ellen White, Ministry of Healing, pgs. 272-274

Sunshine is another key to strong immune health. Sunlight and darkness trigger the release of hormones in your brain. Exposure to sunlight is thought to increase the brain's release of a hormone called serotonin. Serotonin is associated with boosting mood and helping a person feel calm and focused. At night, darker lighting triggers the brain to make another hormone called melatonin. This hormone is responsible for helping you sleep. When natural sunlight hits the skin it triggers the body's production of vitamin D. Vitamin D is also known as "the sunshine vitamin." It is a crucial ingredient for overall health; protects against inflammation, lowers high blood pressure, helps muscles, improves brain function and may even protect against cancer. Low levels of vitamin D can cause heart disease, prostate cancer and dementia.

The eighth and final principle of health is trusting in Divine Power. Jesus said, “Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” Matthew 11:28-30 Jesus bids us to submit our ways and plans into His hands. In trusting Him, who alone is kind and true, there comes true rest to the mind and heart!

“Pure air, sunlight, abstemiousness, rest, exercise, proper diet, the use of water, trust in Divine power—these are the true remedies.”—Ellen G. White, Ministry of Healing, p. 127

Friend, there are thousands of voices telling you to wear a mask, and to stay home to avoid getting this virus. Most of the ‘experts’ are telling you to do so! A few voices are warning against the suggestions of the Beltway madman. A few voices are offering you an alternative to good health and a strong immune system! The choice is ours!

Coronavirus Epilogue

Has anyone ever heard of ‘Asterix and the Chariot Race’? It is the 37th book in the Asterix series, and the third to be written by Jean-Yves Ferri and illustrated by Didier Conrad. The book was released worldwide in more than 20 languages on 19 October 2017 with an initial print run of 5 million copies. The book received renewed media attention in 2020 amid the severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (COVID-19) pandemic because the charioteer favored to win the race goes by the name Coronavirus.

Responding to criticism of the “deplorable” condition of Roman roads in the regions, Senator Lactus Bifidus proposes a chariot race across the Italic Peninsula to showcase the “excellent” roads. The race is open to all people of the known world. Julius Caesar endorses the race but insists that a Roman must win for the sake of unity across the Italic Peninsula. Otherwise, Bifidus will be exiled to Cyrenaica (now Libya). Caesar’s champion for Rome is Coronavirus.

If it were only a cartoon race that would really be stretching things to connect this cartoon with coronavirus and Rome’s involvement with this pandemic. There is too much other information. Unfortunately, it all fits together.

- Jesuit trained Fauci funds labs in China, Wuhan included, to research coronavirus from bats.
- Fauci warns Trump Administration that definitely a virus will happen during his administration.
- Coronavirus leaks out and a pandemic results.

- The solutions fit right into the Jesuits plan: crush middle class jobs, destroy civil and religious liberty, and reduce population for world dominion.
- Francis using virus, Laudato Si, toward an environmental Sunday.
- Rome rules the world one last time for a short time!

Jesus is coming in the clouds of heaven one day in the future. No one knows when for sure. One thing alone is certain; He wants us to be ready to meet Him!
