Dear Friend, Newsletter October 2026

As of this date of this writing, it has been 31 years that we have had this ministry. When I think back over that time and all the doors of ministry that the Lord has opened: from television programs, radio, you tube, the books I've been able to write; the literature we have been enabled to send around the world, and the preaching I've been able to do across the globe, I can only declare, "according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought!" Numbers 23:23 I'm not speechless very often, but I am truly awed by the goodness of God. "The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad." Psalms 126:3 For those of you who have made this possible, who have supported this work for many years, who have sent literature for us to ship overseas, and for all the words of encouragement you have given. I want to say thank you for partnering with us in this work

There is a rather popular gentleman on you tube named Brother Lawrence. He shared a recent message of an Adventist pastor on the shaking. The pastor was very clear that the shaking has begun. It isn't in the future; Seventh -day Adventism is being shaken today! What struck me was the comment of Brother Lawrence when he declared that many, including some popular ministers, have been shaken out of the SDA church. His idea was that the shaking is solely a geographical thing; those who survive the shaking are those who remain in the organization of Seventh-day Adventism and those who do not survive the shaking are those who walk away from the denomination. So, in his mind the shaking is all about church affiliation; if you stay in the church you are safe, and if you don't stay in the church, you have been shaken out. If someone remains in the denominational church, is their safety? If someone is outside the church proper, have they been shaken out and are they lost? This has been the stance of the denomination for decades. As Adventism's historic truths have been laid aside, connection to the denomination has become everything. EGW's statements on the shaking show NO interest whatsoever in church affiliation. The shaking is about an experience/ how we respond to the True Witness of Revelation! It has nothing to do with Church connection or the lack thereof!!!

In the mind of the SOP, which is the Holy Spirit, the shaking is very different. It is about how we respond to the power of God in our lives and His truth. Notice: "I asked the meaning of the shaking I had seen and was shown that it would be caused by the straight testimony called forth by the counsel of the True Witness to the Laodiceans. This will have its effect upon the heart of the receiver, and will lead him to exalt the standard and pour forth the straight truth. Some will not bear this straight testimony. They will rise up against it, and this is what will cause a shaking among God's people. I saw that the testimony of the True Witness has not been half heeded. The solemn testimony upon which the destiny of the church hangs has been lightly esteemed, if not entirely disregarded. This testimony must work deep repentance; all who truly receive it will obey it and be purified." EW, pg. 270 In this quote, we see clearly it is about how we respond to the message of Laodicea. When the Holy Spirit demands repentance; when He calls upon us to put away sin; when He calls for surrender of ourselves to the power of God, how do we respond? Those who respond to the messages will be purified by them, will obey them, and be saved. Those who don't will war against the message and the messengers and reject the light and be lost. In Ellen White's comment, there is NOTHING about church affiliation in the shaking: it is ALL about how we respond to the truth of God!!

In the days of Jesus, there was also a shaking. It had nothing to do with church affiliation; it had everything to do with how a person responded to the message of Christ for that time. ""As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so, he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live forever. These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, this is an hard saying; who can hear it? When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life." John 6:57-68

Many of those who had professed to follow Christ turned away from Him when they realized He had no earthly rewards to give. When the multitudes realized that Christ offered heavenly treasure and a new life of surrender to Him, they scorned Him and walked away. This was a shaking and many people were shaken out of fellowship with Christ! Church affiliation?? Had Nothing to do with it!! Notice the SOP ""The test was too great. The enthusiasm of those who had sought to take Him by force and make Him king grew cold. This discourse in the synagogue, they declared, had opened their eyes. Now they were undeceived. In their minds His words were a direct confession that He was not the Messiah, and that no earthly rewards were to be realized from connection with Him. They had welcomed His miracle-working power; they were eager to be freed from disease and suffering; but they would not come into sympathy with His self-sacrificing life. They cared not for the mysterious spiritual kingdom of which He spoke. The insincere, the selfish, who had sought Him, no longer desired Him. If He would not devote His power and influence to obtaining their freedom from the Romans, they would have nothing to do with Him." DA, pg. 391

Tragically, Brother Lawrence and many others have drunk of the proverbial Kool aid that again makes church affiliation the everything and submission to Christ somewhere in the far-off garbage can. The call to Laodicea is still the same today and the only hope for us is opening the door to Christ when He knocks, “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hears my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.” Revelation 3:20

From Malawi “We thank God for His faithfulness and for your generous gift of books. Today, we completed the distribution of all the books you sent to us. The books were distributed to:

- Church leaders and pastors

- Community leaders

- Christian workers

- Church members

- Other interested people in our community

Everyone who received a book was deeply thankful and encouraged. Many expressed their joy because these books will strengthen their faith, increase their knowledge of God's Word, and help them serve the Lord more effectively. Several church leaders shared that the books came at the right time and will be valuable for Bible study, preaching, and discipleship. Community members also expressed sincere gratitude and said the books would be shared with their families and others who are eager to learn more about Christ. On behalf of all the recipients, we sincerely thank you for your love, generosity, and commitment to the work of the Lord. May God richly bless you and continue to use you to spread the Gospel and strengthen His people.”

From Edward “The report coming from Uganda is so interesting and I have to share it with you. I have a contact who receives materials for the gospel from Charles. So far with the recent series that arrived in that country, the Lord is carefully guiding them to truthful individuals and families that are using them for a very good reason, to find God with His truth. There is a lot of darkness going around Africa. By that darkness, am meaning different religions that has enslaved many. The Almighty God is using weak and simple means to confront darkness here. Groups with individuals are coming to the Lord from various churches after listening to cutting truth their ears have never heard since they believed in God. Am humbled when am told how soldiers are asking for secret terrorist books, and for critical DVDs you have produced in the series we ship every other week. By the grace of God, we are moving with the Lord one step at a time. There is a certain Pastor in Uganda who has been preaching false prosperity messages to his members. He prayed for some and believed all what he was doing was great. One Sabbath afternoon, he walking to his church when he met my contact with tracts. He was handed a tract speaking in tongues with who changed it. These tracts gave sleepless nights to this pastor. He read and re-read these tracts with prayer. He was convinced that God was revealing something great to him. After 2 weeks, that pastor went to look for the man who gave him the tracts and yes, he found him in another community now giving out DVDs. The pastor was amazed to see much better things he received this time around. He has no idea what he was going to learn for God was leading him to truth. This Pastor PB got Daniel and Revelation series. This sealed the life of this pastor. He buried his head and eyes into watching the DVDs for several days until he re- watched the DVDs the second time. This pastor saw how lost he was, how ignorantly he was and how his members have lived in gross ignorance. He started to correct things from his home and he moved to his church members. He was showing them what he found and without saying much, he plays the DVDs to his members and discuss what they have learned. This is in going to this day. It is important that you know PB. My job is to burn multitudes of series to ship there and am doing just that. Let your voice speak to Africa PB until the end of time for the harvest of the Lord."

From Kenya "I am very happy to share that the coming of the youth has been a great blessing in sharing the final gospel message. Their impact has been immediate and encouraging. As soon as they arrived, they went out to meet people, make contacts, distribute books, listen to their needs, pray with them, and point them to Christ and His Word. The Kiswahili Ministry of Healing has become a particular favorite because it speaks directly to families, health, relationships, and practical Christian living. I am now sending more copies to the youth as they continue reaching families. Through the contacts they have made, we are already receiving invitations to reach young people and families in villages farther away. I am therefore planning week-long journeys to new areas, with open-air meetings, evening devotions, Bible sharing, prayer, and personal follow-up. I don't know if you can truly picture the effect of your support. Some people have never held a free, inspiring Christian book before. For them, receiving a book and reading its pages is itself a great awakening. Many are discovering principles that strengthen their families and make the Bible more meaningful, especially after reading books such as Patriarchs and Prophets. The most encouraging part is seeing the youth becoming missionaries themselves. They are learning that evangelism can begin with one book, one conversation, one home, and one willing heart. Already many hearts are responding to the call of the Master Worker, and their numbers will increase. Let every Christian educator give such workers sympathy and co-operation. Let him encourage and assist the youth under his care in gaining a preparation to join the ranks. Ed 270.4 Your support is helping equip these young people for God's service and opening doors into communities that might otherwise remain untouched. Love spreads like fire, and we are grateful to see God using these young people in such a powerful way. May God continue to bless this work as we move forward in faith."
